WAS FINE SPORT.

Gentlemen's Trotters Please the Talent, Though the Crowd Did Not Materialize.

Leaden colored clouds and the prospeets of rain reduced the attendance at vesterday's races of the Gentlemen's Driving club to the least number of persons yet present at the Driving park meetings. The weather also prevented many owners from bringing their borses to the track and small fields resulted. However a large number of horsemen were there and the sport furnished was good.

From a grand stand point of view the efforts of the club to provide clean and wholesome sport is appreciated, but neither the racing nor the attendance will be what it should be until the waits between heats are reduced. Those having a knowledge of the trotting rules find little fault with tedious scoring, because it cannot be prevented. What the general public likes to see is racing and when more of horse and less of wait is given success will attend the result. The summaries of the meeting fol-

The tedious scoring for the 2.50 race took just enough of the edge off of Blue to fit him for the heats which he quarter pole where the mare broke and Dr. Hill's John worked into second position. Blue's cracking pre in second heat, made in 1 16, trok; hearts of the field, but a briging duich for second position by T J. S. and John, won by the former, made the heat an interesting one.

The talent had expected Be my J, owned by Mr. Shelley, to an the three minute race after taking the first heat. Their expectations might have been realized if the mare had not gone into the air in the last stretch of the two last heats, which gave the race to Mr. Slegel's Frank S.

While the 240 race won by Little Agnes did not develop a contest, the race was well driven and the little gray mare was sent the mile out in the last heat in 2 29. Last week she made the distance in 2,26, and the owner expects the mare will lower the time three seconds in the next few weeks. An exhibition mile race between Jack and Little Agnes was trotted after the conclusion of the afternoon's programme. The mare broke on the first and third quarters and Jack won by a neck in 2 34. He could have shaved the time tures seconds had not his driver, Dr. Hill, pulled him when Little Agnes broke in the first quarter.
